EDITORIAL

Wow! What a great day it was. The sun shone, people clapped and cheered as the floats went past and there was laughter and fun everywhere.

A truly wonderful carnival day with a great procession and games and entertainment in the Dam field.

I think everyone enjoyed themselves. So it's a big thank you to all for the months of painstaking organisation, and it's thanks to everyone who took part.

It certainly gets my vote for a repeat performance next year .

Paul

Let love be the way

It has been such a summer with so many great sporting events, some have brought lots of happiness as results have been quite amazing, others have ended in tears and not the hoped for result.

I suppose that's life, though we can have some great times there will always be the down times too, for someone to win someone else has to lose. Someone might get the job, someone else has to continue looking. A person might win the lottery, many more do not!

Of course we had the election as well which had winners and losers, ups for some and downs for others, if we all had the choice of everything we wanted in our politicians we would most likely have a party of one. It is rare that we agree with someone on every issue. We all care for different concerns.

The unrest on our streets has been so upsetting for many and unsettling for the country, especially in as it started based on miss-information following the terrible events in Southport.

What has warmed many hearts is that following the riots which have showed the worst of society, there has been people showing the best of humanity as hugs have been shared, walls rebuilt and roads swept clean. Community at its best

Community is not about all having the same opinions, tastes, likes and dislikes, community is about being able to share our thoughts and feelings without being judged!

Also through the summer we have held carnivals, processions and events that have drawn communities together for the good with much laughter and love shown to fellow beings. To quote the great 1965 song, "What the World Needs Now Is Love Sweet Love ". When we have Love for a Friend and neighbour the world becomes such a great place.

When we share love with others it multiplies, the more we give it away the more we receive. Love can't be seen or even measured and yet it can be given, shown, or felt, it can soften the hardest heart and calm our greatest fears, it can reassure the fearful and fight for injustice, it can bind hearts together in common bond and change opinions, if used correctly it can change the world, first of all though we have to allow it to grow in our hearts!

As Bishop Curry said at the royal wedding "Let love be the way", in all areas of life, especially in our communities where we all live alongside one another. Jesus loved all who he met, even those who struggled with his presence.

We may not be able to change the world but we can change the lives of those around us as we share our love.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonour others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres.

St Gennys Horticultural Show

Truly Cornish

St Gennys Horticultural Show

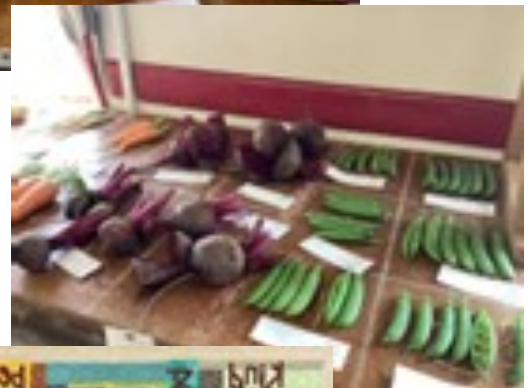

Hundreds of entries were on display at this year's show, a bumper crop, with entrants from across the west country. The show was opened by Janey Comber, a long term active member of this parish - working as a School Governor and District Councillor. This year she even had the privilege of presenting the Robinson Cup to herself for her entries in the jam classes.

Tables at The Legion Hall were laden with a fine display of home grown fruit and veg, from strings of blackcurrants the size of gooseberries to plump green pods of beans. The children's section was particularly busy with brightly decorated cakes, animal vegetables and beautiful prose.

In the handicraft section, Lisa Teague spoke about how delighted she was at being able to enter for the show. "I have been associated with the show since childhood, playing in the hall when my Grandmother, Mabel Gliddon was show secretary in the 1980's. This is the first year I have been able to enter, as I always lived outside the district. I am so pleased that the residency restrictions have been removed from the show's rules." Lisa was one of many new entrants welcomed to the show this year.

As the day progressed, not only was there mouth watering home cookery on display in the show but cakes were available for all to eat. These were generously provided by a team of volunteers for the traditional afternoon teas - all happily eaten whilst listening to the Silver Band and watching the prize giving ceremony. The day was a lovely slice of Cornwall at its best.

Here is Janey Comber, being presented with a flower posey by Zennor, pictured here with Richard Heard who chairs the volunteer committee who organise the show and a selection of some of the cup winning entrants on display.

And Lisa Teague's amazing applique patchwork richly deserved its first prize award

ST GENNYS CHURCH FÊTE

A big thank you to everyone who came along to the St Gennys Church Fête on Sunday 11th August. We were blessed with gorgeous sunshine and lots of visitors, even on such a tempting beach day.

Stalls included 2nd-hand books and plants, as well as the Tombola, Treasure Hunt, Wellie Wanging, Throwing the Loo Roll ... and more. We were treated to a delicious Sausage Sizzle and traditional afternoon Cornish Tea and cakes ... all the while being serenaded by relaxing summer jazz & favourite tunes.

It really was a very enjoyable afternoon. If you missed it, come along next year!

Your Gazette Needs You!

We are all very fortunate to have such an informative parish magazine, which was first published in August 1979! Many parishes produce only bi-monthly or even quarterly editions, and so many are merely advertorials. Not ours! Thanks to our active vibrant community, there is always plenty to fill the pages.

However, we need more help so how about joining our merry band?

We are in need of 2 more Editors to join the editorial team. We all lead busy lives, so the more editors we have on board, the easier the rota!

Putting together the Gazette is fun, a great way to learn more about what's going on and meet other locals - with the satisfaction of contributing to community life. Plus you get to shape the content in your own unique way!

We also require 1 Coordinator to organise quarterly meetings & take minutes, plus oversee our marvellous team of deliverers. We have been very fortunate to have Heather Smith as our Coordinator for a while now; however, sadly for us, she has decided that she needs to have a well-earned rest.

If you are interested, please email stgengaz230@gmail.com or speak to Heather Smith.

ST GENNYS ART EXHIBITION

ST GENNYS ART EXHIBITION 2024

Thank you to all who attended or helped with the recent St Gennys Art Exhibition in July and who came to purchase a painting or piece of hand-made jewellery, bought a cream tea, or made a donation. We raised £1,501.39 for St Gennys Church.

Congratulations and thanks to all our talented and generous artists who displayed their beautiful work and supported St Gennys Church. It was a wonderful exhibition with more artists than ever, across such a variety of mediums ; watercolours; oils; pastels; natural history sketches; prints; pottery, bead work jewellery , crafts, ceramics, silver jewellery, photography, textile art. Visitors remarked on the exceptional high quality of the paintings and exhibits and the amazing wide range of talents. A big thankyou for the generosity of those giving time and raffle prizes and donations or paintings to sell. Please send your photos to gillshipsides@gmail.co.uk

Thank You

A Carnival Thank you

The role of Carnival Chair was not one I sought. Nor would I have let it happen, if I'd been in the room as the assembled plotted. But by the time I'd got back from London, grabbed a pint and India said to me "You'd better get in there, Spike!", it was all too late. My destiny had been determined!

And so the Carnival: What a day! What an incredible team that delivered it? Such fun. Such a joy to see so many, many happy faces. Incredible to witness the parade in all its glory at a quarter of a mile long..... and so much work and effort, love and care put in to the floats and the costumes! And great fun games and fabulous bands - all afternoon! And the craziness of the Tug-o-war finale with the fabulous spectacle of the snake of kids beating the burly crew of hulking adults! Absolute magic!!! Truly the day was an incredible example of a close-knit community coming together to simply have a great time. And why not?

But it wasn't just the afternoon! The evening of Cornish music, home spun local musical acts and brilliant DJ's carried on at The Coombe Barton all the way through to Midnight...!!! Again, an amazing example of this community bent on partying to the very last....!!!

Apart from having fun? Well, after all of our costs and keeping a float of £1,000 for next year (as we inherited from the last one in 2012) we'll have made an incredible £2,000 or so which we'll look forward to "giving back" to local community good causes. AND, Independent stalls run on the day by; The Institute, The Village Shop and The Craven Players added a further £500 plus to their coffers. So over all, the Carnival raised circa £2,500! Not bad, eh for a fun afternoon's work?

So a massive thank you to all who supported the event: For the use of the land and car parks; to a whole host of generous sponsors; to those that fed us; to everyone who came along and spent on the day; To those that ran stalls and those that marshalled (all that traffic), and, of course; That amazing man with his microphone! You all made it happen! But my biggest thanks must go to the incredible team that made up the Carnival Committee. They worked so, so hard and gave so much time, effort and energy over the best part of the last year to make the day happen. I'm in awe of them - Truly they were incredible! From the bottom of my heart, thank you for a wonderful day....!!!!

CRACKINGTON * VILLAGE SHOP

News

Everyone had a grand old time at the Crackington Carnival, with the shop taking a proud 2nd place rosette for our Store Wars walking float. As ever, staff & volunteers rolled their sleeves up together as we saw the likes of Princess Leia, Han Solo & Darth Vader strutting alongside O-Buy-One-Get-One-Free Kenobi (genius), a Chewbacca (bearing a striking resemblance to our old friend the village shop gorilla) & papier mache baguette lightsabers to boot...

Well done to all involved in the whole event, keeping up that ever special Crackington community spirit! With a huge thanks also to new Chair Mo, for manning the fort (in costume) at the shop, alongside the ever amazing Gill, Patsy & Martin; superb efforts all round, all adding to a wonderful day in the village.

So, very shortly it'll all be back to school, back to normality, so do remember we're just round the corner if you need anything for packed-lunches (or for a nice new pencil case) & keep an eye out for seasonal changes on the plants trolley.

It will be very much business as usual for the shop as the Institute car park is renovated, with only one day (where tarmac goes down) that we'll ask customers to reach the shop via the rear of the Institute. We'll put out more information on social media & there will be posters up well ahead, to keep you informed!

WE'RE NOT PERFECT, BUT WE'RE PRETTY CLOSE!
